The building housing Weatherford's was built in 1922 for the Odd Fellows for use as their Oregon Grand Lodge in the ballroom upstairs. Additionally, Freidrich's hardware store occupied the main level where the restaurant is now up until the 1970's. Over the years the building has been used as an antique store, a dance studio, bakery and deli, and wedding destination. The large ballroom upstairs retains its historic charm with rustic wood floors, drapes, and high coved ceilings with beautiful chandeliers. It is the perfect location for special occasions such as weddings, receptions, birthdays, and holiday parties from 80 to 200 guests.

all entrees include a side garden salad or soup, you may also substitute a Caesar or Misto salad for 1.00 additional
